

Product Security

SAVP enables product companies to interface with users, clients, security researchers & industry for two-way interaction related to their product security.

Managed vulnerability database for products & related technologies

Multi-channel interface to stakeholders

Workflow for internal product teams

Product security metrics management & reporting

Customisation as per company standards

Researchers

Users

Clients

Community

External user interface

Internal User Interface

Business

Product security

Product development

Knowledge base

Workflow engine

Product security data store

Threat Feeds / Info

Product Security

Security Analytics & Visualisation Platform